Course Policies

Instructor Policies

- All assignments for this class will be available through Blackboard, and all grades will be displayed in the Bb Gradebook.
- You must go through the course's Learning Modules/Units and Content Folders to access your assignments-- NOT through Gradebook or your Blackboard Activity pages.
- Assignments will vary in form: reading exercises, writing exercises, quizzes, and academic essays.
- You will be asked to demonstrate your reading and writing skills in various ways in this class, but I will do my best to provide specific instructions and examples for assignments, as needed.
- Revise/Resubmit policy: for most assignments, you will be allowed to Revise (aka edit/fix) the first attempt and Resubmit it as a second attempt in order to earn a higher grade, and some assignments will require that you Revise and Resubmit the assignment before you can move on to the next assignment.
- Grades for submitted assignments will be submitted in a timely manner; please understand that English is not a "simple" subject to grade, and it may take more time for grades to be returned to you due to the nature of our content.
- Due Dates will be set in Blackboard as needed on assignments, and an automatic 0 grade will be issued for any work that is submitted after the due date.
- Plagiarism can be defined as submitting another person's or AI's ideas, words, images, or data without giving that person credit or proper acknowledgment. Plagiarism, a form of academic dishonesty, is tantamount to stealing and will not be tolerated. Plagiarism is a serious issue, especially in the academic environment, and now that you are in college you are responsible for yourself and knowing what plagiarism is. Ignorance is NOT a defense. Instructors MUST be able to rely on the integrity of a student's work in order to maintain a climate for successful learning. Plagiarism reflects character; therefore, you should diligently avoid inadvertent plagiarism. When you are unsure if acknowledgment is needed, ask the teacher. The penalties for blatant plagiarism include loss of credit for the assignment (it will be a 0, zero) and NO opportunity to rewrite it. This may significantly lower your final grade. Furthermore, plagiarism, a form of cheating, can result in serious repercussions at the college level.

Attendance Policy

Your attendance counts for 20% of your overall grade in this class, and it will be determined by your Blackboard Access and Activity reports as well as through your active, timely participation in class discussions and assignments.

Additional Information

So, how does this all work? Well, we will start with Grammar to ensure that everyone has a good grasp of the mechanics and conventions of writing. Then we will move on to The Writing Process, which will also help with your English 1301 class-- this is where we will spend most of our semester, but I will continue to work on your specific grammar needs throughout. I want you to think of me as your personal writing assistant-- I am here to help you become the kind of writer that will help you succeed in college and in your future career!
